COOL SALCOMBE

It's cool to take a holiday in the UK this year and you cannot get any cooler than Salcombe on the South coast of Devon.

Every year the stunning Devon town is a haven for 'yachties' taking part in the town's annual regatta racing during August. You will catch them in the town's restaurants and bars or messing about on boats in the harbour. In fact around 5,000 yachts and river users visit Salcombe every summer.

Visitors do not just come for the sailing. Salcombe is also a hub for surfing, water sports and power boat racing. Wakeboarding, scuba diving, kayaking and waterskiing are some of the activities available around the harbour.

If speed is more your thing, there is the Power Boat Grand Prix on 19 & 20 September, where you can marvel at some sleek craft as they race through the waters off Salcombe.

Where else but Salcombe can you hire a stylish American houseboat (www.h2resorts.co.uk) moored on Salcombe estuary complete with its own hot tub, satellite TV and barbeque?

With its art galleries, gift shops and clothing shops selling designer sailing gear, Salcombe is definitely a cool choice for a holiday or short break.
