

SALCOMBE WHERE TO STAY, WHERE TO EAT

Book a holiday or short break in Salcombe and you will find accommodation choices to suit every taste and budget.

Whether you are looking for excellent hotels or a no frills camp site where you can pitch a tent, you can be sure to find what you want in Salcombe and the surrounding area.

The self catering market is particularly thriving and there are a host of beautiful coastal homes that can be rented for a week or more through local companies.

If you are travelling on a budget there is plenty of camping and caravan parks or B&B's to rest yourselves after a busy day exploring the estuary and coves.

On the other hand those fortunate enough to own their own boat can pay for a mooring in Salcombe's pretty harbour.

Dining Out

Choices to dine out in the area range from seafood restaurants selling locally caught crab and lobster, to pubs, brasseries and restaurants serving simple, honest dishes from Britain, Europe, China and South East Asia.

Those with a sweet tooth can indulge in traditional Devon cream teas or delicious Salcombe ice cream.

Alternatively you can pick up some mouth-watering ingredients in one of Salcombe's delis and simply make up your own dish of the day.
